In re: Ovation LLC
Docket 13-15
CSR-8758

Dear Mr. Brecher:

On December 19, 2012, on behalf of Ovation LLC ("Ovation"), you filed an Emergency Petition for Declaratory Ruling and Enforcement Order and for Injunctive Relief against Time Warner Cable ("TWC") for allegedly failing to provide reasonable written notice to subscribers that cable television channel Ovation will no longer be carried on TWC's cable systems nationwide after December 31, 2012.

In a letter dated October 17, 2013, you informed the Commission that the parties have now resolved this dispute.

Accordingly, Ovation requests that its Petition be withdrawn with prejudice.

In view of the foregoing, pursuant to Section 0.283 of the Commission's rules, we hereby dismiss Ovation's Emergency Petition for Declaratory Ruling and Enforcement Order and for Injunctive Relief.

Sincerely,

Steven Broeckaert

Re: CSR - 8758 In the Matter of Time Warner Cable
Emergency Petition for Declaratory Ruling and for Injunctive Relief for Violation of 47 C.F.R. § 76.1603

Dear Ms. Dortch:

By this letter, Ovation LLC hereby withdraws with prejudice its emergency petition for declaratory ruling and for injunctive relief filed December 19, 2012 in the above-captioned matter. The parties have amicably resolved their differences. Ovation understands and is satisfied with Time Warner Cable's past method for providing subscriber notice.

If there are questions regarding this matter, please communicate directly with undersigned counsel for Ovation LLC.

Sincerely,

Mitchell F. Brecher
